

The California-Mexico Trade Assistance Centers operates conveniently located offices throughout California. The goal of each center is to develop awareness of the benefits and opportunities of conducting business in Mexico. Manufacturers, distributors and service companies should all examine their business options in Mexico. Consider a few simple facts:

- + Mexico has replaced Japan as the leading trade partner for California
- + For every $1 billion of California exports to Mexico, 14,000 to 16,000 higher paying jobs are created
- + Future changes in NAFTA regulations will greatly favor businesses in the border states with Mexico – especially California!
- + CMTAC provides free and low-cost services ranging from research and development to assistance in procuring export financing
